Our Inspiration

Florence Elizabeth Clay Sims Dorsey was born on November 28, 1926. She went home to be with The Lord on November 6, 2015. Her life reflected an unshakeable faith in God. Dorsey's love of life, dignity, character, work ethic and commitment to service in her community remains an inspiration to her family and to everyone who knew her. She, as well as her late husband Deacon Richard S. Dorsey, were pillars in their church, well-known in the community — and no strangers to the George James Community Center.

In honor of Deaconess Dorsey, and in the spirit of giving that she so wonderfully exemplified, an education scholarship was established in 2016 by her grand- children. The Committee awarded two scholarships in its inaugural year, two more scholarships in the second year; and, with the expectation of aiding more students, awarded four scholarships in the third year.

THANKS to your support, TOGETHER, we are honoring Deaconess Dorsey as well as encouraging the youth in our community to continue their education — including some who are the first generation in their families to go to college.

Our Focus

As we begin our fourth year, we are excited over the expectation to aide more students, and we are proud of our recipients thus far!

To be eligible for the Dorsey Scholarship, the applicant must be a high school senior in pursuit of higher education, or a student already enrolled in the first or second year of a college, university or vocational school. The George James Community Center, Inc., a well-established nonprofit located in Radiant, Va., administers The Florence S. Dorsey Memorial Scholarship.
